Thistle House

Thistle House is a Scottish dance band rewired for high voltage. Consisting of David Knight on fiddle, Dave Wiesler on piano, and Dan Emery on highland pipes, small pipes, and wooden flute, Thistle House is guaranteed to pump adrenaline into the most tired feet -- especially when the pipes start up! All three musicians are avid and accomplished Scottish country dancers as well as nationally recognized musicians, and this guarantees that the music they make will always be danceable and exciting.

Sandy Gallamore

Sandy Gallamore started dancing in 1981 with the Charlotte Scottish Country Dance Society. In 1985, he started teaching the class on a regular basis until 2004. He received his Full Certificate at 2003 at Thistle School. In 2005, Sandy moved to Richmond, Virginia and teaches weekly. He has taught workshops and classes along the east coast, including Atlanta Fall and Spring Workshops and Scottish Weekend. "My favorite part of dancing is that no matter where you go or how long you've been away from it, the music and the dance welcomes you!!"

Washington, PA

Our Highland Ball will again take place in the elegant ballroom of The George Washington Hotel in Washington, PA. There is a spacious wooden dance floor and a balcony overlooking the length of the ballroom where spectators can relax, enjoy the music, and have a wonderful view of the lines of dancers moving together. A large fireplace and crystal chandelier contribute to the feeling of old-fashioned elegance.

We have reserved a block of rooms until March 15th, 2013 at the nearby Hampton Inn. There is a special rate of $95 a night, with full breakfast. Mention the Pittsburgh Scottish Country Dancers to get this rate.
